THE VISIT

Discovery of the Age of Enlightenment with the Duke of Choiseul, Great Minister of King Louis XV and Governor of Touraine in the eighteenth century.

Visit the Pagoda - historical monument built by the Duke of Choiseul in 1775, offering from the top of its 44m panoramic views of the Royal Castle of Amboise, the Loire Valley and the forest of Amboise.

Stroll in the park of 14 hectares, located at the edge of the Amboise forest, around the large pond in half moon, in which is reflected the Pagoda.

The splendor of the "Palace Disappeared" - Historical movie reconstructing the castle and gardens of Chanteloup at the time of Choiseul in 3D synthetic images (18-minute movie).

Small Iconographic Museum illustrating the portraits of the historical figures of the Chanteloup estate, from the 18th century to today, and presenting the plans of the Choiseul time domain.

The garden of FU XI - come to discover this small garden, its oriental essences and its chinoiseries, which reminds us of the taste for the "Anglo-Chinese gardens", appreciated at the end of the 18th century.

An "old-fashioned" wooden game area for adults and children, reminiscent of the games played by the Duke de Choiseul's guests in the Chanteloup gardens.

PIC-NIC

Picnic areas throughout the park for lunch or tasting. Bring your own picnic or book our "Little Baskets of Chanteloup".
